

Citing a book from Questia with Easybib

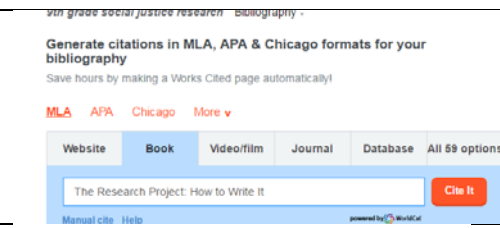

In Questia

Copy the title of the book.

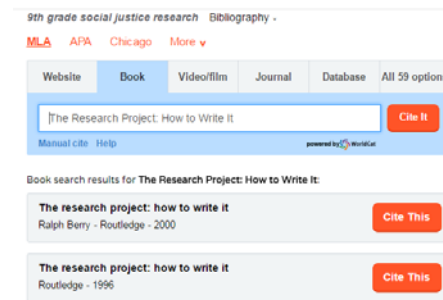

In Easybib

Click on the Book tab & paste the title of the book in the box provided. Then click Cite It.

Choose the correct book from the list given. You may need to refer back to Questia to confirm which book is correct. My book is the latest edition of the Ralph Berry book so I will click the Cite This button by that book.

On the next screen, click on the Online Database tab.

Scroll to the section about the Database & fill in the database name & the date accessed. Then click Create Citation.

You are done!

Hooray! Here's your new citation:

Berry, Ralph. The Research Project: How to Write It. London: Routledge, 2000. Web.
